

NSaRC Masterclasses

2026 Season Masterclass Programme

Practical sessions, led by people who do the work

Short, focused masterclasses for ambitious SMEs, business leaders and organisations. Each session is built around real situations and ends with clear next steps.

Every masterclass is led by NSaRC's leadership and specialists, who work across Parliament, business, technology, trade and diplomacy.

Historic venues

Held in historic venues in central London.

Ten delegates at most

Small groups, with real time with the speaker.

CPD certified

A CPD certificate for every attendee, with supporting materials provided.

Bespoke corporate delivery

Any masterclass can be tailored and delivered privately for your organisation.

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

NSaRC in action

The National Security and Resilience Consortium is a long-established non-profit making organisation. It brings together specialist companies, expertise and networks to support resilience, commercial enterprise and collaboration in the UK and internationally.

Durgan Cooper speaks at a UK Balkan Trade and Security Forum event in the Palace of Westminster. The Forum was launched in Westminster with support from the House of Lords to build trade and security links with the Balkans.

Nigel Cannings addresses business guests in a Parliamentary committee room. NSaRC events in Westminster connect companies with Parliamentarians and specialists.

Business, diplomatic and Royal Navy guests gather in the Palace of Westminster. The event, held with Fieldfisher, brought NSaRC's international network together.

Guests hear a presentation on Bulgarian wine at the Bulgarian Embassy in London. Tastings like this introduce UK businesses to producers and trade partners in the region.

Nigel Cannings presents at a UK Balkan Trade and Security Forum event. The Forum links UK companies with embassies, trade teams and partners across the region.

Diplomatic and business guests at a North Macedonia event in London, with a Giant iTab interactive display. NSaRC supports embassy engagement and the North Macedonia APPG.

Parliament and Westminster

How Westminster works, and how to engage with it well.

Chris Grozdoski

- How Parliament, Government and APPGs fit together
- Finding the right contacts for your organisation
- Correspondence and requests that get answers
- Leave with practical next steps and an engagement plan

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

Artificial Intelligence

What AI can realistically do for your business, and how to start.

Nigel Cannings

- What AI is, and what it cannot do
- Using AI for productivity, sales and decisions
- Weighing the opportunities against the risks
- Leave with a plan to implement on your return

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

Kings Award for Excellence

What the award takes, and how to build a credible application.

Mark Sharpe and John Baker

- What the award represents and why it matters
- Assessing your organisation against the requirements
- Evidence, preparation and planning
- Leave with a masterplan and clear first steps

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

Interpersonal Skills

Better communication with colleagues, clients and suppliers.

John Baker and Nigel Cannings

- Communication, confidence and judgement
- Stronger client and supplier relationships
- Better retention, teamwork and productivity
- Leave with your own personal action plan

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

The Balkans

A growing market for UK business, and how to reach it.

Chris Grozdoski and John Baker

- The region's economies, politics and links with the UK and EU
- Embassies, trade teams and Government support
- Turning relationships into partnerships and sales
- Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia and beyond

NSaRC in the region

- Launched the Balkan Trade and Security Forum in Westminster
- Helped lead delegations and trade missions
- Built links with Balkan embassies in London
- Supported the Balkan Trade and Security APPG and embassy APPGs, including North Macedonia

£295 + VAT per delegate

10% discount for additional delegates from the same organisation

Book a Masterclass

To discuss availability, group bookings or bespoke corporate delivery, contact Gent Kaciu.

Gent Kaciu

Programme Coordination

+44 7387 191817

gentkaciu@outlook.com

Bespoke corporate delivery · Central London historic venues · Small-group and private sessions